Athletic Director

MONTANA
STATE UNIVERSITY

Dear Friends:

With this game, Montana State University concludes another first class basketball schedule presented to the University students and Montana basketball fans.

Membership in the Skyline Conference means that some of the finest basketball teams in the nation have appeared in our Field House. Wyoming, Utah, University and Brigham Young University have all won national titles in past years.

The Field House, now in the fifth season, has proved to be most successful as a means of creating interest in basketball.

We plan to continue to bring the best teams possible to the campus for the entertainment of students and people interested in basketball, and hope to see you all next season.

THE MSU BRUINS

Not exactly orphans, but still looking for bigger and better things to come are the MSU Bruins, the first formal hockey team in the history of the University. And a good team, at that. The Bruins, by virtue of a 9-3 win over Montana State College last weekend and a smashing 19-2 win from Montana Mines earlier in the season, are currently the Montana Intercollegiate Hockey champions.

A large measure of credit for the success of the Bruins should go to the many Canadian students on campus who provided the spark for organization of the squad. Others who helped out were MSU academic vice president Dr. Harold Chatland and coach Sam Elfanson.

The Spectator Salutes . . .

THE GRIZZLY SWIMMERS

The best swimming team in the history of the University will play host next weekend to the Skyline swimming championships in the new University pool, and coach Bud Wallace says his tankmen are definite darkhorses in the league meet.

And the Spectator respectfully doffs its hat to Wallace and his tankers. Faced with inadequate financing for scholarships and other expenses, the swimmers have turned in the best athletic record of the season at the University. They had a 7-0 record in dual meets this year, and are competing in the Skyline western division championships this weekend at Logan, Utah.

To Wallace and his eight iron men—Wayne Veeneman, Doug James, Ivan Jacobsen, Chet Jolly, Ralph Fitzpartiek, John Rider, Bob McKinnon and Bill Brubaker—the Spectator says "good luck" in their quest for a Skyline championship.

The SPECTATOR salutes

Sometimes known as the loneliest women on campus are these seven hard workers, and don't think it's an easy task to extoll a booming cheer when the Grizzlies are down.

But the capable crew of Silvertip cheerers, headed by Jan Tustison, has done a magnificent job during the past football and basketball seasons.

How about a rousing cheer and vote of confidence for these feminine Grizzlies tonight?

the MSU Cheerleaders

The SPECTATOR presents

Gaily bedecked in a satin coat which she recently purchased on a trip to the far east is 19-year-old Helen Guthrie, daughter of Pulitzer prize winner, and Mrs. A. B. Guthrie Jr. of Great Falls.

Lovely Helen is a junior in the English department, and she calls the Kappa Kappa Gamma house her home in Missoula. The 38-25-38 Spectator Gal is scholarship chairman of her sorority, and last year was a member of ROTC Angel Flight and an associate editor of Venture. Hobbies include musical avocations—Lovely Helen likes to play the piano and listen to hi fi records. She also cuts a nice figure as a horsewoman and loves to travel.

Traveling, in fact, took up much of our Lovely's time in the past few months. She returned to school winter quarter after spending three months in Japan, the Philippines, Thailand, Singapore, Hong Kong, the Malay Peninsula and Hawaii.

• • • • •

The Grizzly Seniors !!

21-year-old forward, has been a Grizzly mainstay for two seasons, and the rugged Shelby lad loves his basketball when it's toughest. Darrol is the Grizzlies' leading rebounder this year. A broken finger suffered last month has kept his scoring average slightly lower than last season, but the 6-3 post man hasn't let down in the desire and aggressiveness departments, and he'll be sorely missed in next season's Grizzly edition.

is another senior playing his final Silvertip game this evening. Marv, a 6-6 jumping jack, has shown considerable scoring improvement over last year, and he's one of three pivot men who Frosty Cox can call upon to turn in a fine game. Also has played forward at times this year, and he shines in the rebounding department. Plans to receive his degree in education this spring.

Seniors !!

Big Dave Shelby, the 6-8 center who was figured to be just another replacement this season, is one big reason why the Grizzlies have played top-flight ball at times this year. Dave, with a fine eye for the bucket, gained the aggressiveness and confidence that he needed this season, and he'll end his career tonight as one of the top Montana scorers in 1958-59. A big year for big Dave!

The SPECTATOR presents .....

Interested in all phases of art is 19-year-old Karen Elizabeth Anderson, a sophomore from Missoula majoring in art at the University. She's the daughter of Ray L. Anderson of the Garden City.

Our Spectator Lovely is active in the Cosmopolitan Club and Art Club at the University, and she also enjoys swimming and dancing.

And she'll always strike up a conversation if you mention her "favorites"—like, for instance, a steak dinner, Sinatra's singing, a Lincoln auto or Playhouse 90 on TV.

All in all, Karen's a healthy 34-23-35 Spectator Gal who also unanimously approves of our feature idea.

The SPECTATOR presents . . . . .

The motive behind Spectator Gal Betty Bussell is the fact that we've too long neglected our curvacious women from across town: namely St. Patrick's School of Nursing. So the Spectator hereby presents a Miss Missoula Spectator Gal, and a very lovely one at that.

Lovely Betty is a freshman in the Nursing School, 18 years old, a graduate of Ronan high school, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gregory, who ranch near Ronan.

The 35-22-35 beauty loves the outdoors in general, and lists water skiing and horse riding as her favorite outdoor hobbies. She also plays the piano. And, men, she has no steady at the present time.

Betty's a gal who also expresses great interest in MSU and the University athletes. "I like to see them win ball games," she comments. So do we, Betty.

. . . AND MORE ▶▶▶

.... The SPECTATOR presents

From the land of sky blue waters comes Spectator Girl Cleida Eggert, a Wisconsin lass who's virtually been raised on ice skates and who also enjoys swimming, bowling and other outdoor sports.

Our Spectator Lovely is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kielman of Shawano, Wisconsin, and she's a freshman majoring in secretarial science. Here at the U, she answers her phone at Brantly Hall.

Breaking-the-ice conversation with Lovely Cleida includes discussion of her favorite snack, hamburgers; talking of Frank Sinatra's acting merits; discussing Maverick on TV and scientifically appraising the merits of Oldsmobiles and Pontiacs.

The 35-25-36 beauty also heartily endorses our Spectator girl idea. "A really fine idea," says Miss Eggert.

• a note . . .
• from the SPECTATOR Staff

Many thanks to MSU fans for their fine patronage during the football and basketball seasons! We of the Spectator staff modestly feel that we have produced one of the best athletic programs in the Skyline Conference this season, and your patronage has helped the athletic department immensely.

By word of explanation, it is hoped that profit from sale of Spectators will reach about $900 this year. This is equivalent to providing one full scholarship for an MSU athlete.

Coming up yet this year are programs for the Skyline swimming championships March 6-8 in the MSU pool and for the annual Interscholastic meet May 22-23.

All profits, incidentally, for the swimming program will go toward defraying expenses of sending the MSU swim team to the NCAA swimming championships late in March.

● Grizzly Potpourri . . .

by bob gilluly

The Grizzlies wind up basketball strife for the season next weekend, meeting Colorado State Thursday and Wyoming Saturday. Although these two road games aren't against the Skyline leaders, they will go a long way toward determining how the Silvertips will end up in Conference play.

Spring sports will get under way next month, with the Grizzly baseball nine slated for the first action. Coach Hal Sherbeck will take his squad to the annual spring session at Lewiston, Idaho, late in March.

Track and field coach Harry Adams has 10 lettermen and a number of untried aspirants working out, and the track picture is one of "wait and see what happens."

Coach Ray Jenkins will welcome about 18 lettermen, 35 freshmen and six or seven transfers to spring football drills April 21. The spring workout will wind up May 21 with the annual varsity-alumni game on the eve of Interscholastic.

In swimming news, don't forget the Skyline championships in the new MSU pool next weekend. Coach Bud Wallace also hopes to take three or four of his best men to the NCAA championships March 26-28 at Cornell University.

Appreciation from the athletic department goes out to John Campbell of Radio KXLL, Tiny Twerell of KOPR in Butte, and Mauray White of KGHL in Billings for broadcasting Grizzly basketball games this past season. And to the newspaper folks: Ray Rocene of the Missoulian, and Bob Reagan and Dutch Mings of the Kaimin.

● ● ●

The Spectator also pauses to salute two squads which haven't been in the limelight this season: the MSU skiers and the Bruins, the informal U hockey team.

The GRIZZLY Guide . .

Now in his fourth year of guiding Montana basketball fortunes is head coach Forrest B. (Frosty) Cox, and Grizzly basketball fans can be assured that the Coxmen will bear that familiar Frosty trademark—a team well-schooled in fundamentals and the finer points of the game. The Grizzly cage mentor insists that his boys play “both ways,” and Montana teams the past three seasons have been well-known for their defensive, as well as offensive, abilities.

In his 19th season as a head coach, the fiery Cox is a graduate of the University of Kansas, where he was schooled by the dean of American coaches, Dr. Forrest (Phog) Allen. Frosty stayed on as an assistant at Kansas for four seasons, then took over the head job at Colorado. In 15 seasons with the Buffs, Cox brought CU boys out of the woods into big-time basketball. The Buffs finished second and first in two National Invitational Tournaments in which they played.

Cox temporarily dropped the cage sport in 1950 and went into cattle ranching with a brother in Kansas. But when the call came from Montana, Cox was on hand to take over. His 1955-56 team turned in a fair record, and Cox-coached squads the past two years have been the toughest defensive clubs in the Skyline.

The Frosh Coach . . .

A member of Montana's Basketball Hall of Fame, freshman coach Hal Sherbeck actually turns in triple duty for the Grizzlies. He's also the frosh football coach and head baseball mentor.

Affable Hal is a native of Big Sandy. He turned in two seasons at Olympic Junior College before transferring to MSU in 1950, where he won six letters in football, basketball and baseball. He was captain of the 1951-52 cage quint.

After earning his MSU degree Sherbeck moved into the head football job at Missoula County High School, and his teams won the State Class AA championship three of the four seasons he was head coach. He was named Montana's Coach of the Year after his first championship season.

Sherbeck has proved that he is one of the best freshmen guides in the Skyline, and his ability to work with younger Grizzlies is borne out when the freshmen become varsity men. His wife Dona, incidentally, is the current Montana women's singles tenn's champion.

Other Important Men . . .

Best regaler of war stories on the Grizzly staff is equipment manager Rupert (Holly) Holland, who took over the important equipment task three years ago. Holland is a retired serviceman, and he's equally at his best telling of his service days or efficiently doing the many daily tasks that confront him.

The dean of Skyline trainers is Naseby Rhinehart Sr., and there's no doubt that friendly "Nase" must be considered an all-time Montana "great" for the tremendous advancements in training facilities that he has fostered. Rhinehart took over the training duties in 1935 when the Grizzly training room consisted of little more than a bottle of liniment, and under his direction MSU now has one of the most modern training rooms in the west.

BALKO: 5-11 junior letterman who appears due for All-Skyline honors this season . . . Has 15-point scoring average to date . . . has good southpaw jump shot, but also likes to drive . . . majors in chemistry and reads mystery books as a hobby.

SHELBY: Big Dave's scoring output this season is a big factor in Montana's Skyline battle . . . greatly improved over last season . . . has the best shooting percentage on team and also is a strong rebounder . . . Hails from Albany, Ore.

RUEGSEGGER: A top sophomore who's been "hot" several times this season . . . is a reserve now but has the potential to develop into a fine Grizzly pivot man . . . is most effective with a hook shot . . . hails from Billings and his nickname is "Rip."

DUNHAM: Best rebounder on squad . . . Darrol's scoring hasn't been up to par lately, but the big senior is an asset with his ball handling and defensive work . . . is a brother to former Grizzly great Al Dunham . . . stands 6-3 and hails from Shelby.

SUTTLES: Big Marv has added a good shooting eye to his ability as a rebounder and defense man, and the tall Grizzly has improved considerably over last season . . . stands 6-6 and hails from Chicago . . . majors in education.

HENRIKS: Not figured as a starter, but still can provide topnotch relief duty on occasion . . . good ball handler and one of the top students on the team . . . majoring in pre-med . . . Gale is a 6-3 forward from Spokane . . . only a sophomore.

SCRENAR: Top sophomore on team . . . has been a starter most of the season . . . another southpaw . . . most accurate with a jumper, but likes to hook . . . also a good rebounder . . . hails from East Helena.

The Cougar Mentor . . .

Stan Watts isn't just another well-known personage at Provo, he's a living, breathing tradition. And his reputation in the coaching profession extends well beyond the boundaries of the BYU campus. Now in his 10th season as the top cage guide at Provo, Stan currently holds a 112-41 conference record, and he's 11-3 against the Grizzlies.

Watts was a three-sport letterman at BYU, coached high schools in Utah for about 10 years, and moved to the Brigham Young campus in 1947 to coach the frosh cage squad. In 1949 he succeeded Floyd Millett as varsity coach. Two years ago the Cougars won the conference championship, and personable Stan was named "Coach of the Year" in the Skyline.

GRIZZLY Basketball Domicile . . .

Formally opened Dec. 18, 1953, the Montana State University Fieldhouse has since drawn over 250,000 basketball fans and is considered one of the best basketball arenas in the west. One of the most surprising facts about the gigantic structure is the speed with which it was built. Governor J. Hugo Aronson broke ground for the House, in March of 1953 and the building was completed less than eight months later. Another unique facet of the arena are the huge laminated arches which support the structure. Each of the six arches weighs six tons and, up to that time, were the largest ever constructed. General contractors for the 'House, were Hightower and Lubrecht of Missoula.

You are

The SPECTATOR presents

If gentlemen prefer blondes, here's a Spectator Gal that is decidedly preferable. For Lovely Judy Erickson not only loves to socialize, but she's also pursuing a tough academic course at the University. A freshman majoring in physics and mathematics, Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Erickson of Columbia Falls. Another item we forgot to mention: Judy also brightens the early-morning hours of Grill patrons by helping serve their breakfasts.

At home in the Synadelphic house Judy likes to listen to music or read philosophy. And she also loves to dance. The 35-23-35 Lovely reports no steady boy friend at the present time.

The SPECTATOR Salutes

"Hup . . . toop . . . threp . . . four . . ."

is the sharp cadence by which these young ladies perform, and anyone who viewed the precision performance of the AFROTC Angel Flight at halftime of a game a few weeks ago will agree that here are some real sharp women.

The Angel Flight is a marching auxiliary of the AFROTC unit, and is under the direction of faculty advisor Capt. Donald Hagood. Student advisors are 1st Lt. Alymer Blakely and 2nd Lt. Glen Hickathier.

The Angels are commanded by Coed Col. Velora Lamunyon. Other officers are Coed Lt. Cols. Janet McFarlane and Anne Demons, and Coed Capts. Barbara Lee, Larry Schwartz, Roxanne Shelton and Trudy Hertel.

AFROTC Angel Flight!

Second lieutenants are Judy Briscoe, Sherry Mace, Helen Therrialt, Linda Madsen, Linda Berg, Dianne Wakley, Janice Dickman, Sherry Shaurette, Sherol Greenup, Sue Burton, Anne Shipley, Sharon Rhodes, Maggie Phalen, Priscilla Pickard, Marlys Nelson, Gail Paige, Zola Enders and Marva Kirby.

The Angels also have contributed a goodly share of Spectator Girls this season.

● A SPECTATOR Feature . . .

Although MSU students are avidly dreaming of the spring quarter rush of swimming parties, fraternity weekends and other activities that go hand in hand with warm weather, 'Ol Man Winter seems to be reluctantly leaving the campus. Witness these shots taken by Dick Harris after the latest blizzard hit campus a couple weeks ago.

Ol' Man Winter Calls on Campus • • • • •

- Snow-laden trees (above) behind the Lodge add to the wintry atmosphere.

- Snow covered stumps (right) appear like a band of sentinels on campus.

- Rusty old Van Buren Street bridge (below, right) looks more forlorn than usual.

- Frosty trees and students (left) digging paths across campus combine in a striking view.

● A SPECTATOR

Ol' Man Winter

Universal sign of cold weather: (left) a foreboding icicle hanging from a drain spout.

Coated shubbery (below left) and the law school didn't escape the ravages of the blizzard.

Craig Hall students (below) took advantage of plenty of snow to build a snow-octopus during Snow Weekend.

Feature . . .

Calls on Campus

Even the (right) Forestry School's mammoth vehicle didn't escape the snow.

A snow-covered branch (below, right) and cold blue skies in the background was the symbol of the cold snap.

SAE's and DG's (below) combined to produce a mammoth whale for the Snow Weekend.

We couldn't pass up winter quarter without picturing a Spectator Girl who is adept on ice skates, and 18-year-old JoAnne Boyle is one of the best on campus.

Our Spectator Girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyle of Butte, is not only a member of Butte Figure Skating Club, but also the American Figure Skating Association. She's a freshman majoring in Home Economics at the U, and answers her phone in North Corbin.

The 35-23-36 Lovely also comes out definitely in favor of the MSU hockey team, and says she hopes the Bruins will have a full-sized rink in the near future.

She also wholeheartedly approves of the Spectator Gal idea. Sad news, though—JoAnne says she has a steady.

The Grizzly Cubs

Currently winding up their season of inter-squad games are the Cub cagers, and these hard-working youngsters deserve a strong word of applause from all Grizzly fans.

"This hasn't been an exceptional Cub team," coach Hal Sherbeck comments, "but many of the Cubs will put in a strong bid for the varsity next season." Sherbeck added that his yearling's aren't an exceptionally tall team, but have more than made up for this deficiency with adept ball handling and hustle.

The CENTURY CLUB is:

... composed of some 300 men throughout the state who donate $100 yearly to the MSU athletic program. Through their efforts the University athletic program is assured of a sound financial footing. And, because of them, Montana will continue to produce athletic teams of which the people of the state can be proud.

MONTANA*CLUB

Fieldhouse fans probably won't have a chance to see Cheerleader Lola Garberg garbed in this attire until next spring, but Lovely Lola is still the sweetest breath of spring we've seen in some time. A freshman majoring in education, our beauty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Garberg of Great Falls and currently lives in Brantly Hall. She's also an Alpha Phi.

Lovely Lola lists swimming, skiing, skating, modeling, dancing and listening to records as avocations, but it's at the game of Cheerleading where she really shines. Lola was a four-year letterwoman in cheerleading in high school, and this is her first season with the Grizzlies. Not her last, though, we hope.

The 35-23-35 beauty also is active in ROTC Angel Flight, and she's definitely in favor of the Spectator Girl idea.

Needless to say, another pose of our final Spectator Girl of the basketball season is shown on the opposite page.
